Number of Contestants Indicative of Wide Interest.

SECOND PRIZE AT SMITHLAND

The Sun publishes today for the first time the standing of the McCracken county candidates in the Great Voting Contest for more than $10,000 in prizes it is conducting in association with nine other newspapers of Western Kentucky and Southern Illinois. The list includes all votes received up to 9 o'clock Saturday night and makes a creditable showing. The unusually large number entered in McCracken county is indicative of the broad interest that the chances to win the handsome and costly prizes has created and the preliminary vote of many of them is evidence enough that work has begun and the contest is on in dead earnest.

Upon those who have been nominated and who have a thousand votes each to their credit already the contest management would urge the importance of entering actively at once if they desire to share in the distribution of the automobiles, pianos and other prizes. The proof that one has been nominated, often by some friend unknown to him, is proof enough that some one believes he or she would make a prize winner. NOW is the proper time to enter; GET READY while the field is fresh and roll up votes while others are considering whether to make the race or not. Any slight lead those already at work have will be easily overcome by a few hours of hustling.

Popular and energetic people everywhere are wanted in the contest. It is the desire of The Sun and the papers associated with it to make this contest the biggest one ever conducted in this section of the country. This is the reason such an immense amount was put in prizes. TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS is a lot of money, but none too much to put in prizes for the people of the territory covered by the contest. If you would be the winner of one of those prizes get in the race at once. Full details and subscription books may be had by application at the office of any of the newspapers interested.

A Trial of Steel.

Any one of the 57 prizes is worth striving for. For instance, take the second grand prize, the $850 Ford roadster. This tightly-built and powerful machine made a trip yesterday to be proud of and one that marks it as an automobile that cannot be equalled for speed and endurance.

Starting from Princeton at 10:30 o'clock in a blinding rain the machine made a record-breaking run through mud and over heavy roads for six miles, when a stop of half Suicide in Unusual Manner.

Cleburne, Tex., June 3.—W. E. Beane, aged 50, committed suicide in an unusual manner. After dressing he hung a shotgun on the wall, lay down in bed and pulled the trigger with a cord. The entire load passed through his stomach, causing instant death. Dependancy was the cause of the act.

YOUNG COUPLE UNITED WITH PARENTS' CONSENT.
With the permission of their parents, Miss Luand Hark, 17 years old, and Elbert Basham, of Edmonson county, 17 years old, were married this morning by the Rev. T. J. Owen. The couple were unusually small, but as the bride's father accompanied her and the father had consent, the license was issued. The bride resided in Littleville, while the groom is a farmer in Edmonson county, and referred to his crop as if he were a man of more mature age.

BAPTIST REVIVAL TEST SERVICES ON BROADWAY

Services will be held again tonight at 7:45 o'clock in the tent at Broadway and Seventeenth street where the big Union Baptist revival is in progress. The attendance is fine and the prospect is bright for a splendid revival. While the congregation has not been fully completed the large chorus choir will furnish the music tonight. The Rev. Terry Martin, of Mayfield, is preaching some powerful sermons every night. The public is cordially invited to attend the services.

YELLOW BISCUITS.

Only a few more white biscuits will grace the dinner tables. June 1 the new pure food law which prohibits the manufacture of flour bleaching the flour went into effect, and all flour sold now will have a yellow tinge. Some of the dealers have been busy explaining to housekeepers that the law is responsible for flour being yellow, and not white as it has been. Wholesale dealers are allowed until June 10 to dispose of any stock now on hand while the retail dealers will have a few days longer, in which to dispose of the flour in stock.

ROOSEVELT PRAISES UNITED PRESS MAN

New York, June 3.—Roosevelt in the Outlook today devotes his editorial column to praise of the literary prowess of Warrington Dawson, staff correspondent of the United Press with the Roosevelt party in Africa. He never met Dawson until the present trip, but a friendship sprang up that caused Roosevelt to lower his censorship, and today he invited Dawson to accompany him on the hunt.

Are Doctors of Trees.

Montreal, Canada, June 3.—"The farmer's daughters should be educated to adorn a parlor, advise in the kitchen and know herself," said Secretary Wilson at the dedication of Masdonald College of G.H. University at Stanne, Bellevue, near here today. Secretary Wilson of the United States and Chief Forester Pinchot were given honorary degrees of L. L. D.

Day's Attendance at Exposition.

Seattle, Wash., June 3.—The day's attendance at the exposition, according to figures given out by the management was $9,286. The greater part of this was in the day time, more than 79,000 people passing through the turnstiles between the opening hour and 6 p. m. The night attendance was cut down by a severe rainstorm.

Engineer and Fireman Cooked.

Memphis, Tenn., June 3.—Richard K. Johnson, engineer of the ferry steamer C. H. Hugo, and George Sanders, negro fireman on the same boat, were literally cooked to death yesterday afternoon while the boat was tied up at Mount City, Ark. The engineer and fireman went into the hold of the boat to repair a leak in a steam pipe and a few seconds later cries for help were heard and the boat crew and passengers beheld clouds of steam rising from both the forward and aft hatches of the boat.

POISONED BY BOLL WEEVIL.

Blackberries Infected by Insects Kill Several in Louisiana.

Cottonport, La., June 3.—Several deaths have been caused in this community and around Houshear, La., from eating blackberries, supposed to have been poisoned by some insect. Some presume that the berries are poisoned by the boll weevil, which is found in great numbers in the berries. Two deaths are reported at Houshear, while several are reported in different parts of the parish.

Knights of Columbus Banquet Next Sunday

Officers of Paducah council Knights of Columbus, are busily engaged perfecting arrangements for the initiation and banquet Sunday, when about 50 candidates from Fanny Farm, charter members of a new council there,

WEATHER

THREATENING.

Unsettled weather with probably showers tonight and Friday. Highest temperature yesterday, 81; lowest today, 69.

MRS. CRANE WILL START ON SURVEY FRIDAY MORNING

Will Make Her Tour of City in Mayor Smith's Automobile.

Will Deliver Address at Ky.
Ave. Chnrch.

WILL ARRIVE THIS EVENING.

Mrs. Caroline Bartlett Crane, who will arrive here this evening from Bowling Green to make a sanitary survey of Paducah for the state board of health and the federation of women's clubs, probably will do nothing in the way of making inspections tonight; but tomorrow morning she will make a tour of the city in Mayor Smith's automobile, being accompanied probably by representatives of the health department and the Woman's club.

Mrs. Crane will be met at the train this evening by representatives of the Woman's club, and will be conducted to the Palmer House, where she will stay during her investigations.

After her inspection tomorrow night she will address the citizens at the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church. This meeting will be public and absolutely free, and Mrs. Crane as usual, will speak plainly about conditions she finds in the city, after viewing the public institutions, market house, bakeries, slaughter houses, groceries, dairies and such other places as she may designate.

She will address the school children Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church.

Mayor of Jackson to Wed.
Jackson, Tenn., June 3.—An announcement of mutual social interest to Jackson was made yesterday upon receipt of invitations in this city to the marriage of Mr. Thomas Polk, mayor of Jackson, to Miss Laura Lee Sharp, of Humboldt. The marriage is to occur at the First Methodist dist church at Humboldt on June 16, at 2 o'clock. Mr. Polk has for years been in the banking business here and about a year ago succeeded Hon. Hu C. Anderson as mayor of Jackson. Miss Sharp is from one of the oldest and best families in west Tennessee and is a charming social leader of this section.

ALPINE CLIMBERS FALL.

200 FEET TO THEIR DEATH.

Turin, Italy, June 3.—Four French men are dead and two Italians will lose their lives as the result of an attempt to ascend to the top of grand Dencet, which has been inaccessible in the Alps, according to reports that reached here today. The nine were lined together. One tourist fell and knocked the others backward. The rope broke and six were dashed down the mountain and made a drop of 200 feet.

DAVIS MEMORIAL PARK DEDICATED IN TODD COUNTY

Beautiful Weather For Loving Tribute to Jefferson Davis.

Crosses of Honor For Men Who Wore the Gray

CEREMONY THIS AFTERNOON

Hopkinsville, Ky., June 3. (Special.)—Under a smiling southern sky, the Jefferson Davis Memorial park, at Fairview, Todd county, the old Davis homestead, was dedicated today in a manner and spirit befitting the occasion and the place.

Preparations, made by local committees of Hopkinsville, Elkhart and Pembroke, were ample and complete, and the day was thoroughly enjoyed as a holiday in the two counties. The towns are elaborately decorated with the "bonny blue flags" and Confederate colors. All business is suspended here.

At Fairview the grove, where a barbecue picnic was served at 12:30 o'clock, was cleaned up and made most attractive. A large stand was erected for the speakers, while a mounted parade from Elkhart and martial music added formality to the ceremony.

The speaking began at 1 o'clock. The invocation was delivered by the Rev. W. E. Mitchell and the dedicatory address was delivered by Col. W. A. Milton. Captain W. T. Ellis, of Owenboro, accepted the park on behalf of the people.

A movement was launched to raise a fund of $50,000 to erect a memorial building to be used as a Confederate museum.

Conferring Cross of Honor.

At the Women's club this afternoon Paducah chapter, U. D. C., are conferring on Confederate veterans crosses of honor. Some veterans came in from Murray and Benton to receive the crosses. At 3 o'clock the formal part of the ceremony began, lunch was served the veterans.

Those who are receiving crosses are: James P. Brian, J. H. Carter, W. H. Carter, William Castleberry, E. C. Clark, G. W. Coursey, J. F. Ely, John Fitzgerald, E. Futrell, C. B. Green, W. H. Hiepp, J. W. Jenkins, H. J. Jones, R. A. Luper, J. L. Matheny, W. J. Nolan, J. E. Pogram, J. F. Potts, R. J. F. Robinson, William Stanley, S. R. Shannons (replacing a cross that was lost), H. C. Thompson, W. A. Watson and James Wyatt.

An "Air Tight" Town.

Lexington, Ky., June 3.—The proprietors of poker rooms and crap games hang out the "Nothing Doing" sign last night. The same old put on the saloons last Sunday was spread over the public games last night. Mayor Skain, while saying nothing as to his intentions and making no comment on the criticisms of evangelist preachers, college professors, churchmen and the local Republican newspaper, evidently has made up his mind to give Lexington a tight town.

Cook County Sheriff

Chicago, June 3.—Because he allowed Ex-Judge Abner Smith to retain his liberty after conviction and sentence for wrecking the Bank of America, the supreme court today ordered the arrest of Sheriff Straessholm, of Cook county. He will appear before the supreme court at Springfield June 8, to show cause why he shouldn't be punished for contempt.

PADUCAH LEVEE WILL BE THING OF BEAUTY

Paducah's levee will be one of the best and neatest of any city levee on any of the rivers, when the repair work now going on is completed. The lower part of the levee is a cobble stone, but the upper part is being covered with a thick layer of crushed rock and rolled. The big steam roller has been at work for several days rolling the crushed rock. After the first layer is thoroughly rolled a layer of fine screened stone, mixed with cement, will be put on and rolled. The levee between Broadway and Kentucky avenue on the river side of First street is being graded side to the sidewalk. The park will be added, trees will be set out and benches will be placed on it.

Several river men have said that only one thing will be lacking, and that is a flag staff which will fly a flag at high mast on all holidays and at half mast at the death of city officials and river men.

Lynching at Capital.

Frankfort, Ky., June 3. (Special.)—This morning at 2:15 o'clock a mob of 200 took from the jail here John Maxey, a negro, who killed B. C. Bowers, a circus man, and hanged him to the bridge over the Kentucky river, riddling his body with shots. The members of the mob are unknown. Maxie was an attaché of the circus. He was caught ripping the canvas by Bert C. Bower, of Wichita, Kansas, superintendent of laborers. The negro shot Bower, Negro laborers started to lynch Maxie, but the police rescued him. A white mob then formed.

POSTOFFICE HAS ANOTHER INDEX OF PROSPERITY

An excellent sign of returning prosperity is the increase in the post-office receipts of last month over May, 1908. The postoffice is a splendid indicator of the trend of business and this year there has been a steady increase in the receipts over the same months of 1908. June will close the fiscal year of the government, and the eleven months since last June have exceeded the receipts of last year so a nice increase is assured for this year.

Last month the receipts were $6,974.63, while in May, 1908, the receipts were $4,890.28, which is an increase of $1,184.35. The sales of stamps so far this month has been lively and indicates clearly that business correspondence is picking up, and that Paducah firms are receiving orders as well as going out after orders.

ILLINOIS SOLONS MEET AGAIN TODAY TO CLOSE SESSION

Springfield, Ill., June 3.—The general assembly returned to Springfield for a mighty effort to agree upon matters in dispute, and adjourn sine die. The great question is the repeal of the local option law. It will meet this afternoon, when a committee, considering the bill, is likely to report.

Socialists Active in Paris.

Paris, June 3.—Revolutionary Socialists flooded Paris today with posters addressed to soldiers, calling on them to take the side of labor in the class war with the government. Authorities intend to punish those responsible for the posters.

Hanging Innocent Christians.

Constantinople, June 3.—Indignation was expressed at Adana today over the hanging of six innocent Armenians there yesterday to give semblance of truth to charges of the Turkish investigating committee that the Armenians are partly responsible for the recent massacres, according to dispatches from missionaries. An attempt to secure diplomatic interference to prevent further hangings is under consideration.

Private Temple for John D.

New York, June 3.—An important construction company here announced last night that it had undertaken the construction of a fountain, arbor and "temple" on the estate of John D. Rockefeller at Pocantico hills and adjoining the new $250,000 castle. A member of the construction company said that it was his understanding that the temple was to be used as a private chapel for the members of the Rockefeller family.

SOUTHERN INVENTORS HAVE THEIR DEVICES PATENTED.

Washington, D. C., June 3.—Patents have been issued as follows: Alabama—T. M. Hallings and H. C. Bilbro, Birmingham, combined salt and pepper shaker; W. M. Mitchell, Pratt City, car derailing device; L. C. Stukegor, Brown's garment clasp.

Kentucky—L. M. Cornelius, Ricky Hill station, advertising apparatus; H. Higgins, Newport, curtain fastener; J. M. Hopkins, Lexington, hospital bed elevator and rest car; C. R. Kelley, Louisville, vice.

Tennessee—W. H. Finley, marring hand compressor; J. Galey, Atwood, rail joint; E. Hoy, Memphis, excavator; E. Koella, Knoxville, tuft.

STRIKERS AT TWO PLACES CAUSE ALARM

Philadelphia Goes to Slums to Recruit Police.

After Riot Last Night in Which Many Hurt.

California Miners Are in Threatening Mood.

Clash With Militia Expected
Any Time.

B. & O. Machinists Are Ordered Out.

Simon, Cal., June 3.—American residents of McCloud are guarding their property with rifles. Strikers parade the streets continually, carrying banners: "See the Governor." It is said the company intends to run its own works if it has to shut down for ten years to bring the strikers to terms.

Conditions at McCloud, where the strike of lumbermen is on, are serious today. Telephone and telegraph wires are out. Hundreds of workmen are surrounding the towns reinforcing them. Strikers are said to be in an ugly mood, and a clash with the militia is feared.

Machinists Strike.

Baltimore, June 3.—An order was just sent out by officials of the National Machinists' Union for a general strike of machinists of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad.

Strike Breakers Desert.

Philadelphia, June 3.—Several hundred special policemen, half of them a motley crowd from downtown districts, were sworn in today in an effort to obtain 2,000 special policemen today. Three hundred riot victims are in the hospital.

Subway and elevated employees were called out today on a strike. Strike breakers were used later. Rioting in Kensington was resumed this morning. At the League island navy yard, 20 sailors clashed at the gates of the yard early today. Shots were fired but none was hurt. Marines drove the sailors inside the yard.

Declaring they had been brought here under false pretenses, 50 strike breakers deserted today. They were sent back to New York. According to these men a detective agency hired them, understanding their services were required to start a new road.

Trouble Last Night.

Bidding open defiance to all authority, and attacking policemen with stones and clubs and revolvers, riotous mobs numbering in some cases as many as 20,000 persons, created a reign of terror in the northeastern section of the city last night.

Piles of straw saturated with kerosene were placed under the cars and to the yelling of the mob the flames soon reduced the body of the cars to smouldering ruins.

Non-union motormen and conductors.

Taft for Waterways.

Washington, June 3.—The promise made to President Kavanaugh, of the Lakes to the Gulf Waterways association is that President Taft will attend, if possible, the annual convention of the organization at New Orleans in November. He hopes to return from his western trip by the southern route.

Haskell Stands By Land Agents.

Guthrie, Okla., June 3.—It is semi-officially stated that Governor Haskell has refused to honor the requisition for Secretary W. L. Chapman, of the Oklahoma corporation commission, indicted at Eagle Pass, Texas, on charges of fraud in connection with the colonization of Kickapoo Indians in Mexico, and the purchase of their lands here.

CHOCOLATE BONBON MAY CLEAR UP THE ROBBERY.

Denver, June 3.—James Shelton and Lillian Stevens were arrested and it is believed they may aid in unravelling the Omaha and Spokane train robberies. In a midnight revel the girl dropped a chocolate on a policeman's head and was arrested. The man interfered and also was arrested. Spokane authorities were notified today to arrest persons named by the woman during the sweating.

The Evening Sun's Daily Markets.

Association Inspectors Warned.

To Guy S. Dunning, General Inspector, and all Sub-Inspectors:

We learn parties not under contract to the association are endeavoring to prepare and sell tobacco as association tobacco which is not so at all. This has been suggested before, and possibly attempted. If it is not in it would doubtless prove a great injury to the association, and certainly a fraud upon the buying public. If the effort is persisted in we must resort to any effort necessary to expose and stop it. The association has endeavored to have its prizes perfectly done. When a hoghead has proven not so, we have made the amend honorable by promptly settling the claim. We cannot under any circumstances be responsible for any tobacco prepared by others than those under contract to us, neither do we intend to indirectly permit this fraud which would indirectly injure the association's good character for pricing.

I therefore request that you be very wide awake in an effort to discover such tobacco, expose the fact and decline to inspect it. The thousands of hogheads of tobacco sold by the association in the last few weeks attest the strength of its position. Our methods are satisfactory alike to seller and buyer, and thus demonstrate the importance of jealously guarding against any infraction of our system. Yours truly,
F. G. EWING General Manager.

Louisville Tobacco.

Louisville, June 3.—The offerings on the local breaks follow:

Old crop: Burley 2; dark 9 hogheads.

1908 crop: Burley 35; dark 174 hogheads.

Original inspection 167; reviews 53. Total, 220 hogheads.

Rejections: Burley 3; dark 5 hogheads.

First sale at the Planters' house. Sales:

The Dark warehouse sold 61 hogheads of dark at $3.70 to $10.00.

The Planters' warehouse sold 18 hogheads of dark at $4.50 to $9.70.

The Central warehouse sold 10 hogheads of dark at $7.80 to $9.80.

The Farmers' warehouse sold 5 hogheads of dark at $6.80 to $8.80.

The Home warehouse sold 14 hogheads of burley at $10.25 to $16.00 and 7 hogheads of dark at $4.00 to $9.20.

The Pickett warehouse sold 41 hogheads of dark at $4.00 to $9.90.

The Ninth street warehouse sold 22 hogheads of dark at $4.20 to $8.90.

The Louisville warehouse sold 10 hogheads of dark at $4.20 to $10.25.

The People's warehouse sold 9 hogheads of burley at $11 to $18.25, and 4 hogheads of dark at $4.65 to $9.50.

Live Stock.

Louisville, Ky., June 3.—Cattle—

Receipts were 199 head; for three days, 2,115. The market was rather quiet today, and but little change noted in general conditions; well finished butcher cattle were about steady; medium and inferior kinds very dull; grassy half-fat cattle particularly dull and working lower. The feeder and stocker market was notably steady, but little doing in that department. Choice hinds steady, medium and common dull. Canner and cutter trade slow. Milch cows unchanged. No heavy cattle here; feeling rather easy. We quote: Shipping steers $5 to $6.25; beef steers $3.50 to $5.75; fat heifers $3.50 to $5.65; fat cows $3.50 to $5.25; cutters $2.25 to $3.50; canners $1.60 to $2.25; bulls $2.25 to $4.50; feeders $3.50 to $5; stockers $2.25 to $4.50; choice milch cows $3.50 to $4.50; common to fair $1.50 to $2.50.

Calves—Receipts 161; for three days 439. The market ruled firm on choice veals, bulk of the best around $6.50 to $7; some choice calves shade higher; medium $4 to $6; common $2.50 to $4.

Hogs—Receipts 2,278; for three days 8,244. The market ruled steady selected hogs, 165 lbs. and up, $7.50 to $8; 150 to 165 lbs, $6.50 to $7.50; 125 to 150 lbs, $5.50 to $6.50; roughs $6.25 down. The pens were well cleared and the close about steady. Hogs from doubtful sections selling either at a discount or under guarantee.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts 5,118; for three days 21,416. The market ruled firm on prime lambs and good fat sheep; top lambs selling readily at $9; seconds $7 to $7.25; butcher lambs and culls $4.50 to $6; fat sheep $6 down. Common, trashy sheep and thin cull lambs slow sale. Not enough prime lambs or sheep coming to supply the demand.

St. Louis, June 3.—Cattle—Receipts 2,000, including 600 Texans; market steady; native beef steers $4.50 to $7; cows and heifers $3.50 to $6.50; stockers and feeders $4 to $5.25; Texas and Indian steers $4.50 to $7; cows and heifers $2.75 to $5.40; calves in carload lots $5 to $7.25. Hogs—Receipts 9,000; market steady; pigs and lights $5.50 to $7.25; packers $7.10 to $7.35; butchers and best heavy $7.10 to $7.50. Sheep—Receipts 3,500; market steady; native muttons $4.50 to $6.50; lambs $6.75 to $9.25.

Curious Climax to a 20-Inning Ball Game.

In the June American Magazine, Hugh S. Fullerton, writing about "Deciding Moments in Great Baseball Games," includes the following story among the others that he tells:

"There is one more interesting incident that stands unique, and it is one by which Jimmy Slagle staved off disaster to the Chicago team in a twenty-inning battle between Chicago and Philadelphia, which Ruelbach finally won two to one. In the eighteenth inning of that struggle, with a runner on first base, Sherwood Magee drove a hard line hit to left center. Slagle had just shoved his hand into his hip pocket to get his chewing tobacco when the ball was hit, and as he started in pursuit of it, he discovered to his horror that his right hand was caught in the pocket and refused to come out. A quick jerk failed to release the hand, and Slagle, racing on, leaped, stuck his hand, and caught the ball, saving the Cubs. Then he pulled out his tobacco, bit off a piece, and grinned as the crowd applauded."

A prize of $5,000 has been offered by King Leopold, of Belgium, for the best paper presented describing "The Progress of Aerial Navigation and the Best Means of Encouraging It."

DR. CLEMINSON REFUSED BAILChicagoan Whose Wife Died Mysteriously.

Wants Trial at Once But Prosecution
Asks More Time to Secure Evidence.

INTERVIEW WITH PRISONER.

Chicago, June 3.—Dr. Haldane Cleminson, under arrest in connection with the mysterious death of his wife, was taken before Municipal Judge Bruggemeyer for preliminary hearing. The case was continued until June 9. The attorney for the defense wished an immediate trial but on request of the prosecuting attorney for more time in which to obtain evidence a continuance was granted. Bail for Cleminson was refused. Before the hearing Police Captain Kane had a prolonged interview with Cleminson and said the following of the meeting:

"Cleminson told me that he and his wife were of different temperaments. He said he associated with other women and that long ago he and his wife had agreed to go in opposite directions but that for their children's sake they were to keep up appearances before strangers.

"He said that on the night of his wife's death he had given her a syringe to relieve her suffering.

"Previously he had told me he had never given her medicine. He said that she had summoned a special doctor whenever she was ill. He also told of a poisonous mixture he had made up for a friend which contained chloral. This he declared his wife knew of. This he said, contained twenty grains of chloral."

Morphine Caused Death.

Morphine caused the death of Mrs. Cleminson according to the preliminary report made by Dr. Leconte, who, with Professor Walter Haines, made a chemical analysis of the stomach and intestines of the dead woman. Formal report on the subject will not be made for a week or more.

Mystery About Doctor's Death.

Chicago, June 3.—Dr. John T. Binkley, of Evansville, Ind., 82 years old, was found dead in his room at the Wellington hotel today and while the police and hotel officials call it suicide, Dr. John T. Binkley, Jr., is confident his father was murdered by a burglar.

Dr. Binkley was found sitting upright in a chair and he had been shot in the left side of the face, the bullet taking an upward course. The revolver was found on the bed with one chamber empty.

The dead man's relatives are firm in the belief that he was murdered. They say his watch, purse and valise are missing. The valise was later found in the lavatory on the same floor as Dr. Binkley's room. It contained only some medicines and toilet articles. Deceased was once a well known physician in this city. Dr. Binkley, Jr., is the founder of the Chicago hospital.

Evansville, Ind., June 3.—Dr. John T. Binkley, Sr., who was found dead in Chicago had lived in Evansville a quarter of a century, coming here from Shawneetown, Ill.

ON MONDAY

FOURTH OF JULY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY MERCHANTS.

Retailers Hold Their Annual Meeting and Elect Officers—A Button Factory.

Officers were elected last night by the Retail Merchants' association. Aside from the election of officers the meeting was full of discussion for the best of Paducah, and the members of the association decided to cooperate with the Commercial club in locating a button factory in Paducah. A representative of a large button manufacturer has been in the city, and has found Paducah the most desirable location. The site of the old "Logwood" factory has been suggested as a location for the factory.

The officers elected were: J. L. Wolf, president; R. D. Clements, vice president; W. E. Cochran, secretary; treasurer. The board of directors is: J. A. Rudy, D. E. Wilson, L. W. Henneberger, F. N. Gardner and A. E. Barksdale.

As July 4 falls on Sunday this year the merchants decided to celebrate Monday, and will close their stores and give the clerks a half holiday.

OF ONE PURPOSE.

The stranger advanced toward the door. Mrs. O'Toole stood in the doorway with a rough stick in her left hand and a frown on her brow.

"Good morning," said the stranger, politely. "I'm looking for Mr. O'Toole."

"So'm I," said Mrs. O'Toole, shifting her club over to the other hand.

WEDDING GIFTS

June

The month of weddings is at the door and June brides there will be many. Perhaps you have a relative or friend that is to be either bride or groom. This will call for a gift. What will you give? Why not give Silver, Cut-Glass or Hand-Painted China? These are gifts which last many years and keep the sentiment alive. We have just received a new assortment of hand-painted China, also silver at prices that are attractive, also a nice line of cut-glass. Better call and let us show you. You will not be urged to buy.

JACK JOHNSON MAY YET BE "FANHANDLING"

I hope Jack Johnson will not meet the fate of George Dixon, another black fighter. Dixon was virtually a pumper for several years before his death, being entirely dependent on friends for food and lodging. And yet he earned a fortune in his day. Johnson is getting a lot of money, but according to all accounts is sifting it out. Recently he got $5,000 for facing Jack O'Brien in Philadelphia, and the next day he spent it all for an automobile and a diamond ring. A foolish negro and his money are soon parted. If Johnson is around fanhandling in five years from now, after he gets the whiffing that is coming to him, remember what he did who he had money. —New York Telegraph

CAPONI KNOCKED OUT

In the Fourth Round With Stanley Ketchell.

Schenectady, N. Y., June 3.—Tony Caponi, of Chicago, was knocked out by Stanley Ketchell with a blow to the jaw in the fourth round of a scheduled ten round bout. The westerner put up a miserable exhibition and seemed utterly unable to ward off the blows of the champion, who landed whenever and wherever he wanted. Caponi was knocked down once in the second round and four times in the fourth round, on the last fall taking the count.

THIRD LARGEST EVER PRODUCED

Cotton Crop Last Year About 13,587,306 Bales.

Long Star State Leads Whole South,
With Alabama Fourth—Figures
From Other States.

INCREASE OF 2,211,815 BALES

Washington, June 3.—The cotton crop of the United States last year, according to a statement issued by the bureau of the census, expressed in equivalent 500-pound bales and including lint, was 13,587,306 bales. This represents an increase of 2,211,815 bales, or 19.4 per cent, it was the third largest crop ever produced, being exceeded only by the crops of 1904 and 1906 and was 278,741 bales larger than the average for the past five years.

Of the total production 45.9 per cent came from west of the Mississippi.

It is a striking fact that notwithstanding the crop of 1908 was so much larger than that of 1907, and was of better quality, averaging 5.14 per cent, while the crop of 1907 was middling last year's crop netted the farmers $20,000,000 less than the crop of the preceding year.

The estimated quantity of cottonseed produced in 1908 is estimated at 5,903,838 tons, of which 3,669,747 tons were treated by the oil mills affording products valued at $86,092,583, and distributed as to kind and quality as follows:

Oil, 146,789,888 gallons; cake and meal, 1,491,752 tons; hulls, 1,339,283 tons, and lint, 165,138,928 pounds.

Texas Lead.

The production reported for Texas, 3,913,084 bales, is the second largest recorded, being exceeded only by that of 1906, which was 3,674,000 bales larger. This state showed a falling off in 1907 of 44.9 per cent as compared with 1906, but increased its crop in 1908 by 65.8 per cent over 1907. Texas produced 28.8 per cent of the total for the country in 1908; 29.8 per cent in 1907, and 31.5 per cent in 1906.

Other states showing large increases over 1907 are Arkansas, with 31.4 per cent; Alabama, with 21.3 per cent; and Mississippi, with 13.3 per cent. Louisiana has again sustained a great loss, reporting this year, but 70.1 per cent of the quantity returned in 1907, and less than one-half of that returned in 1908.

MODERN HAIR DRESSING.

has played havoc with the tresses of the fair sex, and druggists everywhere comment on the fact that they are selling large quantities of sage for making the old-fashioned "sage tea," such as was used by our grandmothers for promoting the growth of their hair and restoring its natural color. The demand for this well-known herb for this purpose has been so great that one manufacturer has taken advantage of the fact, and has placed on the market an ideal "sage tea," containing sulphur, a valuable remedy for dandruff and scalp rash and irritations. This preparation, which is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, is sold by all leading druggists for 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle, or will be sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Corbin St., New York City, upon receipt of price. THE STOLEN HORSE.

An Old Proverb With a New Application.

The woods are full of "so-called" remedies for baldness. You may call anything in creation a remedy, but to use them is like locking the stable after the horse is stolen.

Baldness and dandruff are caused by a germ—if you don't kill the germ the germ will kill the hair.

Scientists have labored with the problem of a preventative for baldness for many years.

Newbro's Herpicide is the product of a modern idea, and will cure dandruff and prevent baldness because germs cannot exist when you apply Herpicide.

Herpicide is a valuable hair dressing and scalp disinfectant as well as a cure for dandruff.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample. To The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. $1.00 bottles guaranteed. R. W. Walker Co., special agents.

NEW PSALM BOOK

ADOPTED BY UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Much Discussion of Proposed Change in Ordination Rites.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 3.—The question of doctrine relating to high criticism of the scriptures brought forth much discussion in the general assembly of the United Presbyterian church in annual session here. The question referred to was the proposed amendment to the book of church government.

The recommendation that the word "credibility" be substituted for the word "reliability" in the wording of the vows in the ritual for the ordination of ministers. The amendment was voted down and the old form, with the word "reliability" was retained. The sections involved pertain to the integrity of the scriptures.

The new psalter prepared by the inter-general committee from various branches of the Presbyterians was accepted in outline, and action was taken on other matters relating to church government and discipline.

The report of the committee on psalmody was adopted. Many advantages over the old versions of the psalms are claimed for the new book. Other Presbyterian denominations have adopted the book.

THE STAINLESS BANNER.

(By Herbert Kaufman.)
Down from the highlands and off the far islands,
Out of Armenia, Finland and Spain,
Out of Armenia, Semite, Slavonian—
Come to mingle their blood with our strain.
Why, when the Old World begs,
Why shall we take her drugs?
Why give them welcome to heart and vein?

Spawn of the peasant—uncouth and unpleasant,
Son of the pauper and child of the thief;
Bred through the ages of dwellers in cages,
Starved of all but starvation and grief—
Why do they grope to us?
Do they bear hope to us?
What would they write us on history's leaf?

Here he a haven, but not for the craven,
Welcome each builder of brain or by hand.
Thus were the sires who lighted our fires—
God found them worthy and gave them the land.
Far will we fare with them,
All will we share with them,
But for our cause must they steadfastly stand.

Brothers, remember to nurture the ember,
Let not the glory of Lexington fade,
Sound on the clarion, honor to Marion
(He who fought starving in morning and glade),
Perry and Scott and Boone,
And what the Texas moon
Saw when the Alamo's score had been paid.

There were the sorrows, and ours are the morrows;
Into our hands have they given in trust
Stateless the banners that heard their hosannas—
Flag which no heel ever ground in the dust.
They who would share its folds Gladly must bear its folds,
This is the price they shall pay for their trust.

TWO EMPERORS TO MEET SOON

Nicholas of Russia and William of Germany.

On June 17 in Finnish Gulf on Board Imperial Yacht—Kaiser to Meet Other European Rulers.

DURING COMING SEA VOYAGE

St. Petersburg, June 3.—A meeting between Emperor William and Emperor Nicholas has been arranged and will take place in the waters of the Finnish Gulf. The exact date is to be decided upon later, but it probably will be June 17. The German emperor will arrive on the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, while Emperor Nicholas will be aboard the Standart, accompanied by M. Tswetky, the foreign minister and Admiral Voevodsky, the minister of marine.

It was supposed in some quarters that German mediation, which had ended the Balkan crisis, had left a heritage of bitterness which would estrange the two monarchs and lead Russia to identify herself more closely with Great Britain's continental policy.

The meeting, which according to some reports has been arranged on the initiative of Emperor Nicholas, is taken to mean that Russia prefers an amicable arrangement with Germany to a doubtful issue of an antagonistic policy. If Emperor William also accepts President Fallieres, as it is reported from Berlin he will do, the European situation may be regarded as entering upon a decidedly peaceful phase.

After meeting the German Emperor the Russian ruler will go to Stockholm, probably June 26. He will return to Peterhof, and early in June will receive King Frederick of Denmark. His majesty afterwards will proceed to Poltava to be present July 7 and 8 at the celebration of the 200th anniversary of the battle of Poltava. The emperor will then depart via sea for a visit to France and England and probably Italy.

Funeral Street Cars.

"In a good many towns out west," said Harry J. Hill, of Omaha, at the Union House, "the funeral car operated by street railways is getting to be very popular. I was in a town in Iowa lately, where the local street car company had established such a service, and was told that the idea was looked upon with much favor, and that a number of funerals had already been conducted in this way. There is no fear, however, that the lively stable people will suffer much loss of patronage in the near future, for mankind is more conservative as to the disposition of their dead than in nearly any other mundane affair."—Baltimore American.

WHO'S WHO

AT CHATTANOOGA, WHICH OPENS HERE JUNE 13.

Five Trier Sisters Will Furnish a Concert First Night of the Assembly.

Publication of the nearly completed program of the session of the Paducah Chautauqua association, which opens June 13, has brought about some discussion as to "who is who."

One of the interesting combinations that come to charm the visitors this year is the Trier Sisters, five in number, or as some one has put it, two and a half pairs of twins. There are soprano twins and alto twins and a fifth sister, who is the accompanist and a reader of marked ability.

These attractive young ladies have grown up together and no pains have been spared to make their voices blend perfectly.

They have charmed audiences all over the country, especially in the west, and will make their first appearance on the evening of the first day of the Chautauqua, following Mr. Ryan's great lecture, "The Prince of Peace" in the afternoon.

Suit Growing Out of Night Riding.

Nashville, Tenn., June 3.—It. M. Craig filed suit in the circuit court against Thad Seals for $10,000 damages for alleged outrages. The suit is in connection with the Lula Green case, tried before Judge Matthews some time ago, in which the plaintiff received a verdict of $3,000 for a beating administered by night riders. Craig is the father of Lula Green and claims that while his daughter was being beaten he was held up in the house with drawn wagon standards. He further charges that his house was broken into and searched. The other defendants were sued in the courts at Waverly.

Railroad time, as we generally understand the phrase in the United States, is a little ahead of the town time, but in The Hague, the quaint old capital of Holland, all private and unofficial clocks and watches are kept twenty minutes fast.

Woman's Beauty

Dependent on Health

A woman's beauty is dependent on her health. To keep your beauty you must keep your health. Sickness and suffering leave their traces, pain robs you of your good looks. Women generally have come to realize that to be beautiful and attractive they must give attention to physical fitness and health.

Thousands of women suffer from ailments generally designated as "female troubles," thinking it is the natural lot of their sex to suffer so. This is a mistaken belief. Nature invariably has a cure for her children's ills.

Thousands of women have found permanent relief and help for their sufferings by using that natural, herbal medicine—Cardui. Cardui is a pure, non-intoxicating preparation, made specifically for women, which has grown steadily in favor during the past 50 years. Letters pour in every day expressing the gratitude of the writers, who have been relieved of their misery and restored to health.

When you are nervous or sick, get Cardui from your druggist and try it.

N. B. Upon request, we will send you, free of charge, our valuable, illustrated 64-page book "Home Treatment for Women." In it you will find useful information regarding the treatment of female troubles.

William Lorimer Will Meet Plenty of Men From Humble Home in Senate.

Washington, June 3.—Although "billy" Lorimer used to collect nickels from passengers as a street car conductor, and occupied various other positions in the industrial world which many folks would regard as menial, he will not find himself lonely in the senate. There are many other members of this so-called "Most Exclusive Club in the World" who are of humble origin and who got their first start in life in just such ordinary, every day occupations as those which first engaged the attention of the new senator from Illinois.

Senator Curtis, of Kansas, was once a jockey, and a very good one, too. Senator Scott, of West Virginia, was a glass-blower at the time when, with half-naked bodies and brawny arms, the workers in that industry collected a portion of molten glass upon the end of a tube and with their own breath blew it into shape. Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, was a "lumber-jack" and helped to denude the forests which he is now so eager to save.

Senator Nixon, of Nevada, was a telegraph operator before he got interested in mines from which he has since made millions. Gallinger, of New Hampshire, started in life as a printer, and then studied medicine and became a doctor before he entered politics. Senator Smith, of Michigan, had unusual advantages in training in parliamentary procedure, for he began his career as a page in the Michigan legislature.

Senator Chamberlain, of Oregon, clerked in a general merchandise store.

Even the great Aldrich, recognized leader of the senate, and arbiter, through his position as chairman of the finance committee and his control over the pending tariff bill, of the destinies of almost every mine, factory and mill in the United States, got his first practical business experience behind the counter of a retail store.

The silver-haired Senator Bulkley, of Connecticut, also began life as a clerk, while Senator Perkins, of California, still refers with pride to the time when he served as a sailor before the mast in many a long voyage. Senator Richardson, of Delaware, whose father was a cannon and packer, entered into that business and learned the trade, working his way up from the lowest position.

Senator Jones, of West Virginia, was born three days after the death of his father in the Civil war. As soon as he was old enough he had to hustle for a living. He hired out to do all kinds of farm work when he was only ten years old.

So Lorimer will find many among his new colleagues with whom to swap hard-luck stories, or better still, tales of obstacles overcome and success won, by pure grit.

The Great Northern Country.

Nimrod was a mighty hunter, but had he hunted in the "Temagami" region he would have been a mighty one. Nimrod hunted for glory, but Temagamians hunt for game. Those Indians who made the first canoe of birch bark long ago, were our greatest benefactors. The children of these Indians know the canoe, and they know how to use it, and if you go Temagami this summer they will paddle your canoe in their own superb way. They will be the best guides you ever had. Students who camp in summer along the Temagami lakes are able to do two years' work in one. Finest of fishing and hunting. Good hotel accommodation. Easy of access by the Grand Trunk Railway System. Information and beautiful descriptive publication sent free on application to G. W. Vanux, 917 Merchants Loan & Trust Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

The Tall Soldier.

Bordelais—"My dear sir, here is our bar racks we have the tallest soldier ever seen."
Marsellais—"The tallest? How tall is he?"
Bordelais—"Six feet nine inches."
Marsellais—"Six feet nine inches? That is nothing. In our barracks we have a sergeant who is so tall that he is compelled to kneel when he wants to scratch his head."—June Lippincott's.

"England has no need to worry about the likelihood of war with my country," he said. "The jingoism of a few easily excitable persons in England will soon pass over. Between the two governments there is no misunderstanding or enmity and the real sentiment of the two peoples is not hostility or bitterness, but healthy, temperate, good natured rivalry."

"Germany is very proud of the progress of Count Zeppelin and our other aeroplanes. But the English yellow journals are, of course, wrong in their efforts to make war talk out of our efforts to conquer the air. We are building a good secret fleet of warships and we have no scout balloons hovering over England's coast line."

America the Comfortable.
People with an average income of from $1,000 to $3,000 a year live in far more convenient houses in America than in England. The matter of water, heat, lighting, suitable kitchens and kindles is insisted upon with us, and is lacking in an appalling extent in English country or even town houses, and also in the more pretentious country houses themselves. The houses of the poorer classes, laborers, clerks, servants and the like, are mere boxes, with none of the conveniences to which Americans even of the poorer classes are accustomed.—Scribner's.

It is stated that there are 17,000,000 children in Russia who are unable to get any education whatever.

Dr. Pierce's Health Talks

The miracle of motherhood is often overshadowed by the misery of motherhood. The great functional changes which are incident to child bearing leave their mark for life on many a mother. Some women offer up their lives as a sacrifice on the altar of motherhood. A far greater number live on in ceaseless misery. Their strength fails, their beauty fades, they have no ambition and no enjoyment in life. To every woman

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Offers escape from the pains and perils of motherhood. Taken during the period of waiting and anticipation this medicine strengthens the body, nourishes the nerves, and prepares the whole womanly system for the coming of baby. It also insures an abundant supply of nourishment for the child.

The mind feels bright and buoyant. There is no anxiety, no dread, but in its place a happy anticipation of the baby's coming, which counts for the future happiness of the child unborn. The use of "Favorite Prescription" makes the baby's advent easy, and gives abundant vitality to nursing mothers.

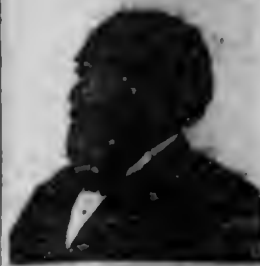

There is no alcohol or habit-forming drugs in "Favorite Prescription." It is a purely vegetable medicine.

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription." There is nothing "just as good" for weak and sickly women. All its ingredients printed on its bottle-wrapper.

The larger success of doctor or druggist is never won by putting love for the dollar above duty to the sick. Protecting the sick, giving them what they ask for when Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is called for, will enrich him in respect, if it does not swell to the utmost his profits.

Daily Thought.

Personality is something to be cultivated. Peculiarities are to be discouraged.

Is it possible that the Liberty case is just another confusion of the term with license?

In his speech before the senate advocating a return of the war tax on manufactured tobacco and an increase in the size of packages, Senator Beveridge says that in 1927 there were

333 independent factories, as compared with 180 today. The value of the industry is $331,117,681. Nearly one million acres are devoted to the raising of leaf tobacco, the value of which as a farm product is $50,000,

000 to $75,000,000 annually. There are 491,912,649 pounds of leaf tobacco used in this country today,

compared to 216,465,338 in 1906.

The suggestion was made in fiscal court that the county should take better and greater precautions against being swindled on claims, and immediately someone proposed a new office, that of auditor, to protect the county. The proposal possibly was innocent enough, but it indicates how our multiplicity of offices came about. Some official takes advantage of his opportunity to steal public funds. Then another office is created

"to watch him." Some time, maybe,

a new officer is required to "watch that one, and so on, indefinitely. We have too many municipal, county and state offices now.

RATS.

According to the biological expert

of the department of agriculture,

rats eat up property to the value of $100,000,000 every year. Paducah, like most cities, is undermined by rats, and every merchant realizes the part he contributes to this enormous sum total. Rats were once our scavengers; but the densely populated municipalities cannot depend on rodents to look after the scavenger service. People dwelling so near together must keep their premises clean. Rats are common carriers of disease breeding germs, and are wholly unnecessary in the economy of any modern community. It is estimated that one pair of rats in three years will produce a line of descendants aggregating 20,000. Thus do they propagate and rob us, while we do nothing to stop them.

The Henderson Gleaner says to Mrs. Crane that Henderson "extends to her the open and glad hand of true

Kentucky hospitality."

We hope its hand is clean.

"Paducah is cleaning up to receive

Mrs. Crane. Why not keep the town in that condition for all time, visits or no visits?"—Owensboro Mese-nger.

We shall, curly pate.

The old homestead of Jefferson

Davis, in Todd county, is being deicated, on this, his birthday. Hundreds of true southern men and women are doing honor to the only president of the Confederacy. It is a fine thing to make shrines of the birthplaces of our great men. The thoughts provoked by their memorials are inspirations to future generations; for it is a notable fact, that our truly great men are all good men.

THE SENATORIAL COMPLEXION.

The New York Evening Post has been interested in the business connections of the United States senators, and an examination of their records shows the following professional and business statistics:

Lawyers without special leanings,

40.

Bankers and holders of bank stocks,

21.

THIRD DISTRICT POLITICS.

A Hopkinsville paper claims to have a tip that the Law and Order

League (anti-night rider) has formed a coalition with the Republicans and will put out a ticket in the Third district with Attorney General

James Breathitt for circuit judge and

Judge A. J. G. Wells, of Calloway, for commonwealth's attorney, against the Democratic ticket which will be nominated next Saturday at a primary election. Judge Wells is now a member of the board of control of state charitable institutions, says the Clinton Gazette.

That's a wrong tip, we think. In the first place, we are told, Attorney

General Breathitt has been sounded on the subject and declines to seek any other office until his term expires. In the second place Hon. A. J.

G. Wells is well pleased with his position on the state board, and his friends won the nominations on the Democratic ticket in Calloway county.

It is not likely that he would run on a ticket, opposing them. Moreover,

the Republicans of Calloway county,

as we understand it, have the sympathy of that element of Democracy, which opposes the nominees of Judge

Wells' faction and are basing their hopes of success on that fact. So, it is not likely that they would have anything to do with Judge Wells.

Of course, politics causes men to loop the loop frequently, and the situation may have shifted since we acquired the foregoing information; but we do not anticipate any Republican nominations in the Third district, regardless of its desirability.

SOME STORIES

AROUND TOWN

Mr. George Ingram, after a very short visit to his elder brother and other friends, returned to his Paducah home on the Richardson Saturday. His visit afforded much pleasure to Mr. M. V. Ingram, who had not seen the "baby boy" of the family for 20 years. These two are all that are left of a family of seven—

all reared in Montgomery county,

Tenn. George being 63. Friends tried to persuade him to stay over and preach for us Sunday, but he has an audience in Paducah that cannot be neglected. He gave an afternoon reading, however, showing that he knows the Book from Genesis to Revelations, and knows everything in between that old Nick hasn't got

These are the things, combined with "know-how" which make the ice creams served at our new Iceless Fountain about the most delicious morsels which ever melted in your mouth on a hot day.

"Iceless," as the word is used in connection with this fountain, means the coldest possible. Every portion of the fountain is reduced to the lowest temperature by cooling coils—no dirty ice, no chance for careless operators to permit fermentation of syrups.

By all means try the new fountain; you'll enjoy it immensely.

River Outing.
Yesterday afternoon the steamer Richardson brought back to Nashville one of the merriest parties that has made the trip to Paducah, Ky., this season. The party is composed of the Nu Sigma Mu club and a number of friends numbering thirty-two, and was chaperoned by Mrs. W. G. Bogle and Miss Amanda Phillips. There were two bands on the boat which added much to the pleasure of the party and a number of courtesies were extended them by Capt. Carter. This is one of the affairs planned and given by the Nu Sigma Mu club, whose steady growth promises to make it one of the most popular musical clubs of the city, reflecting much credit on Miss Ruby Manning, the president.—Nashville Banner

Bankston-Forrest.
Miss Sallie May Forrest, of Paducah, Ky., and Mr. Albert M. Bankston, of Nashville, who were married a few days ago at the home of the bride, with the Rev. C. E. Jackson officiating, have arrived in the city.—Nashville Banner

"Mrs. Augustus E. Wilson will return from the Norton infirmary this evening, where she has been for the past month. She has recovered from the accident from which she has suffered so long."

Matinee Musical Club Members to Go to Mayfield.
The beautiful cantata "The Rose-maiden" which was so charmingly presented in Paducah recently at the Woman's club building under the direction of Miss Newell, chairman of the Woman's club musical department, will be given tonight at Mayfield under the auspices of the Matinee Musical club of this city and the Mayfield Woman's club. The Paducah party will leave this evening at 6 o'clock and return tonight at 1:30. A number will go besides those taking part in the cantata.

Keen interest is being evinced in the performance by the Mayfield people. A telephone message to some of the Paducah club members today stated that the opera house had been converted into a veritable rose bower for the performance. The Paducahians will be entertained at the Hotel Hall and an informal reception will be given after the performance. The Mayfield committee are working to make it both a financial and social success.

The Paducah party will include: Mr. and Mrs. James Wellie, Mrs. Hubbard S. Wells, Mrs. Hal S. Corbett, Mrs. Lela Wade Lewis, Mrs. Melvin Wallerstein, Mrs. Roy Gress-hain, Mrs. George B. Hart, Mrs. W. Money Raised to Prevent Sale of Christina.

London, June 3.—According to an evening newspaper the money necessary to secure Holbein's portrait of Christina, duchess of Milan, for the nation has been provided by a wealthy west country art lover. Apart from the government's contribution of $50,000, the public subscriptions have amounted to only $50,000.

Consequently the philanthropist who has come to the rescue had to provide $210,000 to make up the price, $350,000.

The famous Holbein portrait of Christina of Denmark had been loaned by the duke of Norfolk to the National Gallery for 28 years. It was recently sold by the duke for $305,000 to an art dealer, but with the understanding that the nation might purchase it within a month for $350,000.

The National Gallery has no resources and an appeal was made to the public to prevent the picture leaving the country.

It is supposed to have been bought by the art dealer for an American client.

AN UNUSUAL PROCEEDING.

New York, June 3.—Official announcement that negotiations are under way to list the common stock of the United States Steel Corporation for trading on the Paris Bourse was made by J. P. Morgan, Jr., who was recently elected director of the steel corporation to succeed H. H. Rogers. The opening of the Paris Bourse to an American corporation stock is an event of the greatest importance to the financiers of this country, giving entrance to the rich investment market of France for fresh supplies of capital. At present there is no stock of an American corporation listed in Paris, and only two bond issues, one of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad and one of the Pennsylvania railroad, are so listed.

Sound Fresh Fruits Delicious Thick Cream

Those are the things, combined with "know-how" which make the ice creams served at our new Iceless Fountain about the most delicious morsels which ever melted in your mouth on a hot day.

"Iceless," as the word is used in connection with this fountain, means the coldest possible. Every portion of the fountain is reduced to the lowest temperature by cooling coils—no dirty ice, no chance for careless operators to permit fermentation of syrups.

By all means try the new fountain; you'll enjoy it immensely.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

River Outing.
Yesterday afternoon the steamer Richardson brought back to Nashville one of the merriest parties that has made the trip to Paducah, Ky., this season. The party is composed of the Mu Sigma Mu club and a number of friends numbering thirty-two, and was chartered by Mrs. W. G. Hogle and Miss Amanda Phillips. There were two bands on the boat which added much to the pleasure of the party and a number of courtesies were extended them by Capt. Carter. This is one of the affairs planned and given by the Mu Sigma Mu club, whose steady growth promises to make it one of the most popular musical clubs of the city, reflecting much credit on Miss Ruby Manning, the president.—Nashville Banner.

Bankston-Forrest.
Miss Sallie May Forrest, of Paducah, Ky., and Mr. Albert M. Bankston, of Nashville, who were married a few days ago at the home of the bride, with the Rev. C. E. Jackson officiating, have arrived in the city.—Nashville Banner.

Jolly River Party.
Mr. A. Y. Martin is the host of a river party today making the round trip to Cairo on the delightful steamer Dick Fowler, in honor of Miss Sing Lee Harris, of Louisville, who is visiting in the city, and Mr. Glenn Smith, of Los Angeles, Cal., who was formally of this city. The party will return tonight at 8 o'clock. Those in the party were Misses Sing Lee Harris, Blanche Hillis, Belle Cave and Helen Hillis and Messrs. Glenn Smith, Fred Wade, Douglas Hagby and Arthur Martin.

The Greatest Wealth.

Is there any compensation in money for a starved, shrunken, dwarfed mind? Can lands and houses, stocks and bonds, pay a man for living a narrow, petty, sordid life? How much money would match the wealth of a trained mind, of unfettered possibilities, the capacity for the appreciation of the meaning of life, of the lessons of civilization, worth no more than one's bread and butter and roof? Can any one conceive of greater possessions than an intellect well trained and disciplined, than a broad, deep, full-orbed mind responsive to all beauty, all good?—Orison Swett Marden in Success Magazine.

A WELL COOKED DINNER

If you have a good cook is assured when you use a Gas Stove or Gas Range. The heat is steady and uniform, which is not the case with a wood or coal stove, and you can raise or lower the flame as you please—which, of course, is impossible on any other kind of cook stove. To make a fire, you simply turn on the gas and apply a match. To put it out, turn off the gas.

A Promise to Pay

Would you accept a stranger's note? No. Then why accept from a stranger any other promise to pay? A Fire Insurance policy is such a promise. Ought you to accept it without knowing all about the Company? Your usual business confidence is based on knowledge. Why make an exception in that part of your business which deals with insurance? A name is worth nothing on any kind of a promise to pay unless it is backed by character and resources.

We favor insurance knowledge, particularly about our companies. Their promises to pay have never gone to protest. Their obligations to its policy holders are backed with such a good reputation and such ample financial resources that the more you know about them the more you will want protection by their policies.

FORMATION OF U. C. V. PARADE

Gen. J. H. McDowell as Chief Marshal, Makes Assignment.

Army of Virginia, Trans-Mississippi Department, Army of Tennessee, Forrest Cavalry in Order.

LINE OF MARCH IN MEMPHIS

Gen. J. H. McDowell, maj.-general commanding the Tennessee Division, United Confederate Veterans, has, as chief marshal, issued the following general order regarding the line of march and formation of the parade during the Confederate reunion at Memphis, June 10.

In conformity to the custom of the United Confederate Veterans Association, as the commander of the Tennessee Division, I have been appointed chief marshal of the United Confederate Veterans at the nineteenth reunion.

It is therefore ordered that the parade will move precisely at 10 a. m. on Thursday, June 10, and will form in the following order:

Mounted police.
Chief Marshal, his staff and chairman parade committee.

Band.
Gen. Evans' escort, Company B, Confederate, Tennessee state guards.

Gen. Clement A. Evans, commanding and staff.

One carriage for general headquarters, sponsors, maids of honor and chaperons.

Army of Northern Virginia.

Commander of the army of Northern Virginia department and staff.

One carriage for department sponsor and maids of honor.

Virginia division, Maryland division, North Carolina division, South Carolina division, West Virginia division.

Commander of department and his staff, and maids of honor.

One carriage for department sponsor and maids of honor, or if preferred, sponsor and maids of honor may ride on horseback.

First division.

One carriage for sponsor and maids of honor.

Second division.

Third division.

One carriage for each division sponsor and maids of honor will follow immediately in rear of each division commander and his staff.

Ambulances will follow the rear division of each department.

One carriage for Southern mothers, and one for Ladies' Memorial association.

One carriage for governor of Tennessee and staff.

Sons of Confederate veterans.

Band.

Commander and his staff.

One carriage for headquarters sponsor and maids of honor.

First department of commander and his staff.

One carriage for sponsor and maids of honor.

Second department commander and his staff.

Third department commander and his staff.

One carriage for sponsor and maids of honor.

One carriage for N. B. Forrest Camp.

Vehicles may follow if they desire, but no drays, advertising vehicles or wagons will be allowed anywhere in the procession.

Formation of Procession.

Infantry commands will form in columns of fours, and cavalry commands in columns of two.

Army of Northern Virginia Department—The Virginia, Maryland and North Carolina division will form on the east side of Second street, south of Union, fronting north on Union.

The South Carolina and West Virginia division will form on the south side of Union street, east of Second, fronting west on Second, and will follow the North Carolina division.

Trans-Mississippi Department—The Missouri and Texas division will form on the south side of Monroe street, east of Second, fronting west on Second, and will follow the North Carolina division.

The Kentucky, Georgia, Florida and Alabama division will form on the south side of Madison street, east of Second, fronting west on Second, and will follow the Texas division.

Army of Tennessee Department—The Kentucky, Georgia, Florida and Alabama division will form on the south side of Madison street, east of Second, fronting west on Second, and will follow the Pacific division.

The Mississippi, Louisiana and Tennessee division will form on the north side of Madison street, east of Second, fronting west on Second, and will follow the Alabama division.

Forrest Cavalry Corps—Forrest's Cavalry Corps will form on Court avenue, east of Second, fronting west on Second, and will follow the Alabama division.

Colored Veterans, in columns of fours, will form on the north side of Madison street, east of Second, in rear of Tennessee's division, and will follow that division.

Carriages containing representatives of Ladies' Confederate Memorial association and Southern Mothers will form immediately in rear of Forrest Cavalry Corps.

Sons of Confederate veterans will form on south side of Jefferson avenue, east of Second street, fronting west on Second, and will follow Forrest Cavalry Corps.

Each carriage containing brigade and camp sponsors, maids of honor, etc., will form in rear of Sons of Confederate veterans and will follow them in parade.

All commands and authorized vehicles must be at their respective places promptly at 9:45 a. m., as the procession will move precisely at 10 and all commands and authorized carriages not in position at that time will be required to fall in rear or be excluded entirely.

Official sponsors and maids of honor are earnestly requested to be ready when carriages call for the procession will not be delayed a moment for any carriage, command or individual.

The forces of each division will be put in their respective places by a staff officer from the staff of the chief marshal, assisted by Gen. A. R. Taylor, chairman of local parade committee.

By order of Gen. John Hugh McDowell, major-general, commanding Tennessee division, and chief marshal.

Official: JOHN P. HICKMAN, Adjutant-General and Chief of Staff.

Public Improvement Committee.

The public improvement committee of the general council met last night to consider bids for the installation of files in the new vault, which will be erected in the city engineer's office. The recommendation of the committee was that the contract be awarded to the Art Metal Construction company of Cincinnati, for $312. The company offered to furnish skeleton shelving for $180, but the committee did not recommend the shelving as necessary. It was recommended that J. A. Rudy & Sons be awarded the contract for furnishing the city engineer's office with file cabinets for $32.

Members of the committee present were: Aldermen Hank, Sherrill and Councilmen Warner and Hannan.

OVER THE FENCE

Neighbor Says Something.

The front yard fence is a famous council place on pleasant days. Maybe to chat with some one along the street, or for friendly gossip with next door neighbor. Sometimes it is only small talk but other times neighbor has something really good to offer.

An old resident of Hild, Texas, got some mighty good advice this way once.

He says:

"Drinking coffee left me nearly dead with dyspepsia kidney disease and bowel trouble with constant pains in my stomach, back and side, and so weak I could scarcely walk."

"One day I was chatting with one of my neighbors about my trouble and told her I believed coffee hurt me. Neighbor said she knew lots of people to whom coffee was poison and she pleaded with me to quit it and give Postum a trial. I did not take her advice right away but tried a change of climate which did not do me any good. Then I dropped coffee and took up Postum."

"My improvement began immediately and I got better every day I used Postum."

"My bowels became regular and in two weeks all my pains were gone. Now I am well and strong and can eat anything I want to without distress. All of this is due to my having quit coffee, and to the use of Postum regularly."

"My son who was troubled with indigestion thought that if Postum helped me so, it might help him. It did, too, and he is now well and strong again."

"We like Postum as well as we ever liked the coffee and use it altogether in my family in place of coffee and all keep well." "There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

Partners to the End

[Copyright, 1909, by T. C. McClure.]

One day when Colonel Day came back to his top story room at Mrs. Wilkins' rooming house he found the room next to his occupied. It had been vacant for a year, and the colonel was not only curious, but nettled. The par-ret of the house was divided into two rooms, and his was one, and he had never even looked into the other, but as he had so long been the sole tenant of the top story he felt that he ought to have been consulted as to a new-comer. When he heard a person moving around in the other half of his domain he went down to Mrs. Wilkins.

The colonel was a man of sixty. He had threadbare garments and an empty purse. While he occupied the cheapest room in the house, it was well known that he was often hard put to pay his rent, while his meals were always taken at the cheapest restaurants. He was a man of dignity and education, and that he had once occupied a place in the world could not be doubted.

"Mrs. Wilkins," began the colonel as he entered the landlady's presence, "I take it that you have rented the other room, and to a female at that?"

"Yes, colonel, but it is to a young woman who is trying hard to make a living."

"But you should have consulted me. I have been with you for a year, and I should hate to remove to other quarters, but please remember that I have certain rights and privileges, and they are not to be abrogated without my consent. I will think it over and consider what steps to take."

Five minutes later he knocked on the door of the other room, and it was opened to him by a young woman of about twenty-five. He bowed slightly, and she drew aside as an invitation for him to enter. As he looked around the room he saw a cheap old trunk on the floor and a few poor articles of wearing apparel hanging up on the nails driven into the wall. A second glance into the young woman's face told him that she had consumption.

"I came here to ask you why you rented this room," he said as his face softened a little, "but I can see without asking. Miss, let us shake hands."

"For why?" she asked.

"Because I occupy the next room; because we are both victims of like fortune; because we should feel sorry for each other; because I feel more sorry for you than you can for me."

"I hardly understand you, sir," she said as she slowly put out her hand.

"You are trying to make a living, I take it?"

"Yes."

"And I am fighting poverty in hopes to live a few years longer, though why I should care to live another week I do not know. The bond of poverty is between us. Let us be friends."

That night, instead of taking his meal at a cheap restaurant, he brought home a loaf of bread and some sausage. Instead of going out to hunt up a cheap place, she went out for a bit of butter and a jar of marmalade. He did dinner together in her room. It was the first of many meals.

The colonel and the young lady got to be very good friends. They conversed with each other; they cheered and encouraged each other; they deceived each other, or tried to, as to what the future had in store. The woman suffered most, and yet she was the bravest hearted. From almost the first day of their meeting they looked forward to certain things. Some day the last of his friends would disappear and his precarious income would cease altogether. He would die before asking a stranger for charity. Some day the disease eating at her lungs would demand the penalty, and there would be no avoiding it. They talked the matter over for an hour and then dropped it and never referred to it again. It was the black shadow in their path, and yet they fought it away. One night, a year later, the colonel came home and found the young woman in bed. The doctor had been there, and the landlady had done all she could do. It was the beginning of the end. The colonel sat down with a softer light on his face than his partner had seen there for weeks, and there was a touch of the exultant in his voice as he said:

"I have come home penniless. The last of my friends has turned his back on me. I am no beggar of alms."

"I am so sorry," she sighed.

"Say rather that you are so glad. You may linger for a month, but you have no hope of getting well."

"Same whatever."

"You remember our talk of long ago? The time seemed far off then, but it is here tonight. Why should you be a month in dying? Why should I seek to live for three or four years more?"

"Yes, we had a talk," she quietly said.

"Have you any money?"

"A dime. Take it and buy you something to eat."

"Partners to the last," he said as he smiled and rubbed his hands together. "It makes it far easier where we are to go together. I will be back soon."

"And it is going to happen?" she asked as he returned with a bulky package.

"It must. Why should it not?"

"Yes—why not?"

Half an hour later the colonel sat down beside the bed and kindly said: "We have been partners—true partners. I will sit here and hold your hand while we sleep."

"They found them thus—the police—the fearful landlady—the bustling coroner—the reporters."

"They simply fell asleep," said the coroner. "The fumes of charcoal always leave that peaceful, restful look on the human face." M. QUAD.

"Don't you think, Mr. Skipkins, that the college you have selected for your son has rather fallen off in its curriculum?"

"Not much it hasn't. They ain't got a football team to beat it."—Baltimore American.

S.S.S.

CURES OLD SORES

We want to show you in this short, but honest and reasonable talk, how and why S. S. S. cures Old Sores. We do not claim that S. S. S. works wonders, but we do know it will cure sores and ulcers, and its record of forty years past abundantly justifies this confidence.

Any old sore shows an unhealthy and impure condition of the blood. It is a diseased condition of the flesh at that particular spot, caused and kept inflamed and irritated by a continual discharge into it of unhealthy matter from the circulation. In various ways the blood becomes contaminated and polluted. A long spell of fever, or other sickness, breeds disease germs in the system; the failure of nature's eliminative members to remove the waste and refuse matters of the body, the excessive use of minerals in certain diseases, infected wounds, bites and stings of insects, etc., all contaminate the blood with morbid matter and germs which sooner or later manifest their presence by a sore or ulcer which refuses to heal under the ordinary treatment of local applications.

External treatment can never cure a chronic sore or ulcer, because it does not reach the blood. The place will remain open as long as it is used as a drainage for the impurity which is in the blood, and in addition to the worry and anxiety caused by an old sore, there is always danger of its becoming cancerous, if a cure is not effected. Purify the blood, and nourish the flesh with a rich, healthy circulation, and then the place will heal of its own accord.

S. S. S. cures old sores by removing the causes which produce them. It goes down into the circulation, drives out all impurities and poisons, and by nourishing the flesh with rich, pure blood causes the place to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. does not make a surface cure, but, being the greatest of all blood purifiers, it begins at the bottom and by rebuilding broken down tissue, and supplying healthful, healing qualities to the circulation, causes the place to fill in with firm, healthy flesh, while it steadily but surely removes the cause and effects a permanent cure. The sore cannot remain when the blood is pure, and S. S. S. will thoroughly purify the blood. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.

S. S. S. is for sale at all drug stores.

JUSTICE HARLAN IS SEVENTY-SIX

Veteran of Bench Discusses Leading Issues.

Labour and Race Question He Considered Greatest Now Before American People.

HE SEES DANGER IN STRIKES

Washington, June 3.—Justice
John Marshall Harlan of the supreme court of the United States left the family party which was celebrating his seventy-sixth birthday to talk with a reporter. The "grand old man of the American judiciary," who towers above most other men in Washington, both mentally and physically, was in the best of spirits, for the supreme court adjourning for the summer and Saturday he leaves for his summer home at Murray Bay to play golf and contemplate nature until the fall. He would have retired on full pay six years ago, but, like Chief Justice Taft, he does not intend to leave until he is "carried out feet foremost."

"Mr. Justice," the reporter ventured, "you have been regarding public affairs from the bench for a long time now. Please say what you consider the most important question now before the American people."

Strike Danger Grave.
"It is difficult to say," he replied, musically, "but perhaps it is the relaxation of the rears. The question presents a grave situation. But then, even more vital, perhaps are these strikes."

"In the present Georgia strike the race question and the labor dispute seemed to be intertwined," suggested the reporter.

"Yes, that is true," replied the justice. "But such strikes as that in Philadelphia, where the transportation of a city of millions of inhabitants is entirely suspended, puts before us a very dangerous problem.
But I cannot go into the details of such subjects because in one form or another they are likely to come before the court."

"Perhaps you can say what you think of President Taft's policy of taking the judiciary out of politics?"
was suggested.

"It never has been in politics,"
was the ready response. "As a judge
I do not wish to be put in the attitude of speaking about policies of the administration. But as a citizen
I have no hesitation about saying that no official of the government, however important, should be permitted in any manner to control the judiciary appointments. President Taft is absolutely right in assuming the full responsibility for his judiciary appointments. Others may give him their advice and he may listen to what they have to say, but it should never be that anyone should be permitted to influence judiciary appointments on political grounds alone. Also as a citizen I have the highest confidence in Mr. Taft's ability as a lawyer and a former member of the bench to pick out the best men."

Believes in Big Navy.

In view of the fact that his colleague, Justice Brewer, recently made a speech deprecating large armaments and favoring international arbitration, Justice Harlan was asked his views on the subject. He indicated his desire not to be placed in a position antagonistic to Justice Brewer. "But I don't mind repeating what I blurted out at the Naval League dinner not long ago," he remarked. "That was, that we should have in each ocean, the Atlantic and the Pacific, a fleet large enough and powerful enough to cope with any other nation on earth. These fleets should be kept each in its own ocean and the government should not be obliged to send ships way down around South America. That's my idea of an aid to peace."

HE HIRED A HORSE AND

HE FAILED TO REAPPEAR.

New Haven, Ky., June 3.—About two weeks ago a man giving his name as Dr. Murphy and claiming Central City as his home, arrived here and made inquiries for pastures to graze 3,000 of his Angus goats. He also claimed that he had discovered a treatment for decaying trees. He hired a horse and buggy from Charles Fryer's livery stable to drive through the county and when last seen passed through Hardtown. All efforts have failed to locate the man, the horse or the buggy. Mr. Fryer has employed a detective. The horse and buggy are valued at $400.

Joint Council Committee Meets.

The joint railroad, telegraph and telephone committee was in session last night for the purpose of considering the advisability of having separate seats on the street cars for the colored patrons. Mr. F. E. Hiedhead, manager of the Paducah Traction company, was not present and Alderman Hank appointed Alderman Sherrill and Councilman Wanner to confer with Mr. Hiedhead about the matter. No other business was before the board. Aldermen Hank, Sherrill and Councilmen Wanner, McCarthy and Mayer were present at the meeting.

"SYLVAN SYMPHONIE"

SCENES HIT AT WALLACE PARK CASINO.

"My Lord in Livery" By the Junior High School Class for Ishkoodah.

"A Sylvan Symphonie," as presented at Wallace park last night, seemed a success with those who witnessed the production. The motif of the entertainment is the rendition of a selected appropriate musical number, for each of the seasons—spring, summer, autumn and winter—elaborated with scenic and stage effects and ensemble dances, groupings and movements by a score of children, together with interpolations of some clever special acts. The feature of the evening was undoubtedly the autumn scene, in which, "under the dim light of a woodland nook," Miss Versus Hollenberg sings the latest Nell Moret success, "Autumn," being assisted by six pretty little girls, the scene closing with a unique tableau.

The rendition by Miss Hollenberg is artistically fine, and the accompaniment by the chorus original and beautiful. The sketch, "Clinders," presented by Misses Fannie and Jeannette Hiltolf and Miss Daisy Detzel, also made a big hit, and the special numbers rendered individually by Misses Fannie Hiltolf and Miss Huby Detzel also were well received. Although the weather was quite threatening a fair sized number of people attended the performance and praise for the offering was unanimous. The same performance will be repeated tonight.

"My Lord in Livery." "My Lord in Livery" will be presented at the Casino tomorrow night by the Junior class of the High school, under the direction of Misses Anna Hild Stewart and Adah Brazel-ton, and for the benefit of the publication fund for the High school paper, the Ishkoodah. This little play is bright and attractive and will be exceedingly well presented, and is certainly deserving of a liberal patronage.

RAIN HINDERS

CROP REPORT BULLETIN ISSUED FOR MAY.

Kentucky Department of Agriculture Keeping in Close Touch With Conditions.

Frankfort, Ky., June 3.—Commissioner of Agriculture M. C. Itanku gave out the department's monthly bulletin of crop conditions in Kentucky. The department is keeping very closely in touch with the farmers of the state. The report June 1 says:

There has been a very large amount of rainfall during the month of May, hindering the farmers greatly in their work.

The condition of wheat has shown a considerable tendency toward improvement over last month and with weather favorable will make a fair yield.

Corn planting has about all been finished, except in general sections where the rainfall has been very great. A larger acreage will be planted and more attention to this crop will be given than in many years.

Much rain has been favorable to those that had their ground prepared for tobacco setting. Many say that much ground is not ready and on account of so much rain there is a large percent not planted. There is also some complaint about plants being scarce. Oats are looking well and promise to be a larger crop than for the past few years.

Alfalfa is doing well and making a splendid yield, but the weather is not good for cutting the first crop. There is not enough sunshine to cure it as it should be. The price of alfalfa ranges from $12.50 to $16 per ton, and with such conditions as these we think the people plant more each year, for there is no doubt that it has more feeding qualities than any other hay grown.

Clover is looking well and will make a fine crop with favorable weather.

The prospects for a good fruit crop are not as good as they were last month.

Horses are very high; prices ranging from $125 to $150 and hard to buy at that.

Mules are not as many in number as they were at this time last year and are very high. Prices ranging from $150 to $200.

Cattle are not so high, prices ranging from three cents to four and one-half cents per pound.

Sheep are doing very well; prices from four and one-half to six cents per pound.

Hogs are high, prices ranging from six to eight cents per pound. There is very little or no complaint of any disease among them.

The price of poultry and eggs have been for the last year and are still higher than ever known before at this time of year, prices of eggs ranging from seventeen to twenty cents per dozen and hens and chickens from twelve to twenty-five cents per pound.

There are good prospects for a good berry crop. There is a full crop of blackberry blooms and others in proportion.

Hemp is looking well. Prices good ranging from five to six and one-half cents per pound.

STOMACH TROUBLE CURED.

To any one suffering with stomach trouble, I will say I was afflicted with it for fifteen years. I got in such condition I had to quit work. I tried Hays' Specific, found relief and went back to work and now hold my former position. I can conscientiously recommend it for stomach trouble.

MAY BE TREASURE SHIP.

Queer Tale of Discovery Made in River at Chester, Pa.

Chester, Pa., June 3.—Government officials are agitated over the discovery of an obstruction in the Delaware river, in the vicinity of Ft. Mifflin, which they think may prove to be a treasure ship which went down in 1812. It is known that there is a boat at the bottom of the river at that point.

While the government boat Cataract was working in the vicinity yesterday the auction pump became clogged, and when it was brought to the surface it was found to contain several fancy and costly helmets, such as were worn by the English soldiers, and equipments of other descriptions.
The discovery has led to the belief that it is one of the boats of the English government which brought gold to this country to pay its soldiers during the war of 1812.

For the purpose of bringing the boat to the surface, the Hell Gate, which has been dredging the river off this city, will be sent to Fort Mifflin.

Counterfeiter Gilty.

Toledo, Ohio, June 3.—Archibald
Chapman pleaded guilty in the federal court to counterfeiting quarters and half dollars and was sentenced to two years in the reformatory at Elmira, N. Y.

Mrs. Nancy M. Johnson, of Washington, was the first person to take out a patent on an ice cream freezer.
She was the wife of a naval officer.
She took out the patents in 1843 and sold the rights for $11,500.

Ancient Smart Sets.
Considerable comfort should be derived by certain circles from the discoveries made in ancient Egyptian cemeteries by Prof. Flinders Petrie.
Allments to which modern flesh is prone and which are declared to be the results of latter-day luxury and excess are now found to have been suffered in ancient Egypt; fashionable foibles of society women which earn thunderclaps from pulpits and platform are now shown to be of no new thing, but to have been the foibles of the smart set whose homes were on the banks of the Nile.

In the course of the excavations Prof. Petrie has discovered a case of gout, a case of appendicitis, and pet-dogs adorned with ivory bracelets and showing by their teeth that they had led easily pampered lives. From the strictly ethical point of view there is no answer to the charge of wickedly wasting money on pet dogs in the fact that the thing was a hobby in ancient Egypt; nor should the gouty person accused of indulgent living find virtue in the report that the pangs of gout were known when Pharoah held sway—London Graphic.

Be Sure You Are Right.
"Bill had charge of the animal tent," said Mr. Hingling, "and among his pets was a leopard. This leopard gave Bill more trouble than all the rest of the menagerie put together."

"One day when I had left the show on some advance business, a telegram was handed to me. It was from Bill and read: 'The leopard has escaped. What shall I do?'"
"That was just like Bill. He didn't want to make a mistake."
"I immediately wired back to Bill:
'Shoot him on the spot.' Two hours later I received another telegram from conscientious, careful Bill:
'Which spot?'"

TRAIN ROBBERS ARE BOUND OVER

Woods, Torgenson and Gordon Held to Grand Jury.

Twenty-two witnesses. All More or Less Sure, Identified Prisoners
as Those Who Held Up

OVERLAND LIMITED MAY 22.

Omaha, Neb., June 3.—George Woods, Fred Torgenson and James Gordon were bound over to the grand jury under $25,000 bond each to answer to the charge of holding up and robbing the Overland Limited mail car on the Union Pacific on the night of May 22.

Twenty-two witnesses were called to identify the prisoners and all were identical with those who committed the robbery. Six small boys, ranging from eight to eleven years of age, were interesting witnesses, and each told of seeing one or more of the men in the vicinity of Brown Park before and after the robbery occurred. They found revolvers and other paraphernalia which led to the arrest of the men charged with the robbery.

The members of the train crew and a number of postal clerks were among the witnesses and all were alike able to identify two or more of the men under arrest. Chief Clerk Whitmore, of the mail car, gave a graphic description of the robbery and told of being prodded in the ribs with a revolver by one of the robbers because he did not move fast enough. The defense did not introduce any witnesses, the attorney representing the prisoners satisfying himself with a rigid cross-examination of the government's witnesses.

EDGAR A. FOX

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKER IS CRITICALLY ILL.

Formerly Well Known Educator of This City and a Popular Citizen.

Edgar A. Fox, superintendent of the Kentucky Sunday School association, who has been ill at his home in Louisville for the last five weeks, is in a critical condition, and but slight hope is entertained for his recovery. Mr. Fox, who is widely known in religious circles, and who has many friends throughout the state, has been suffering from a severe stomach disorder in which complications arose last Saturday that alarmed his physician and his family and there has been little if any change for the better since that time. He was formerly public school principal here and has many friends in Paducah.

Taft Receives Adventists.
Washington, June 3.—President Taft received and addressed the North American division of the Seventh Day Adventists who have been in session in this city. G. A. Irwin, president of the division, presented the president with an address prepared by the Adventists, embodying their sentiments and expressions of sympathy in his work.

Replying the president said: "I have no doubt your conference has led to satisfactory results, that your aims are high and that you are entitled, like all the rest of us to worship God in the way that seems best to your conscience, and that under our constitution everybody figures on an equality in that regard."

It's an easy to be foolish as it is foolish to be easy.

THE DECLAMATORY CONTEST TONIGHT

Will be Held in the High School Auditorium.

Historical Contest Entered Into With Zest and Good Stories Are Told.

TICKETS FOR COMMENCEMENT.

Tonight at the high school the declamatory contest will be held and to the winner will be presented a gold medal, which is offered by the Rev. M. E. Dodd, pastor of the First Baptist church. Owing to the numerous school entertainments it has been decided not to charge any admission fee for the contest and the patrons and friends of the school are extended an invitation to attend. All of the pupils have studied hard for the contest and the race for the medal will be unusually close.

The program will be: Piano duet—Miss Almeda Dreyfuss and Miss Julia Dabney. "Eulogy on Henry W. Grady" John T. Graves—Plutian Harth. "Boy's Bear Story" (James Whitcomb Riley)—Miss Blanche Johnson. "Spartacus to the Gladiators" (the Rev. Elijah)—Fain King. "The Debutante" (selected)—Miss Ruby Johnson.

Piano solo—Miss Lucille Harth. "The Peroration of Webster's Reply to Hayne"—Irvin Rooks. "The Gypsy Flower Girl" (McDowell)—Miss Ira Jones. "Await the Issue" (Thomas Carlyle)—David Humphreys. Music and decision of judges. Presentation of medal by the Rev. M. E. Dodd.

Historical Contests.

A historical contest was held yesterday afternoon by the history classes of Miss Kate White and Mrs. Fannie Leddra, of the Washington school. Five children entered the contest and the judges had a difficult matter to ascertain the winners. Dorothy Summerville told "Incidents of Early West Virginia," and was awarded the blue ribbon, while the red ribbon, the second prize, went to Wayne Rye, who recited "Pioneer Stories of the North State." Lydia Wellie was given third honor with the story of "Richard the Lion Hearted." Tom Corbett used "Napoleon" as his subject and told the story interestingly. Leola Bass told the story of "Frederick the Great" with much charm. The judges were Annie Belle Grainger, Mary Kennedy and Helen Burkholder.

This afternoon the pupils of the history class of Mrs. F. C. Leddra held a historical contest, using "The American Revolutionary War" as a subject. A large audience was present, and the young people acquitted themselves with credit. Tickets for the commencement of the high school have been printed and have been placed in the hands of the school children, who will sell the tickets. The tickets may be taken to the box office of the Kentucky theater and exchanged for reserved seats. It is expected to have a large audience at the graduation this year.

Pupils of the Longfellow school enjoyed a street car ride yesterday afternoon from 4 o'clock until 6 o'clock. The children rode over every street car line in the city, and had two happy hours.

The English grade in charge of Miss Emma Acker had a picnic supper at Wallace park last night. After the dismissal of school the children went to the park and enjoyed several hours.

The chemistry class of the high school visited the Paducah Water company and the Jackson Foundry and Machine company this afternoon. Prof. W. A. Evans accompanied the class and explained to the class the practical working of the principles they have studied.

London, June 3.—Scientific justification of cannibalism was propounded by Dr. F. Gowland Hopkins in an address at the royal institution.

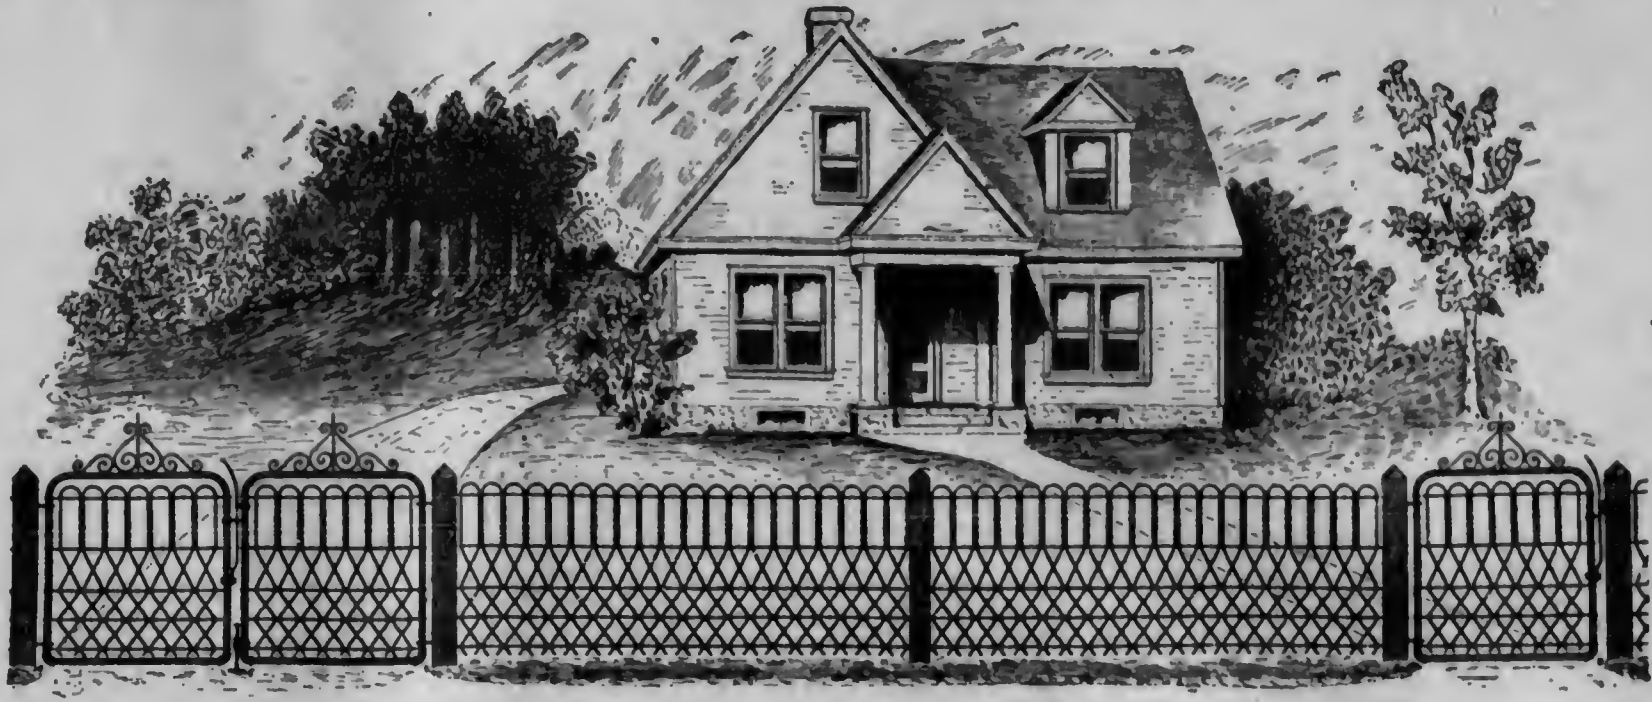

"What would be the most efficient practical dietetics, the most sensible person in this connection is the cannibal. In consuming his own kind, he is exactly eating the right stuff."

"The experiment of a worker in Heidelberg University just lately proved this point. He found that a dog when fed with dog, was able to do with a much smaller quantity of protein than when fed any other protein."

"Whatever there is in the chemistry of species, the nearer the two species of animals are together, the more nearly does the chemistry of their bodies agree."

COUNTY TEACHERS

WILL BE ELECTED BY DIVISIONAL BOARD.

First Selection of Teachers Under New Law Promises Excellent Results.

Teachers for the county schools will be elected June 26, the last Saturday in June. This year the trustees will have a large number of applicants to select from, and as one trustee said in some instances it will be possible to elect a better grade of teachers for a few of the county schools. This year will be the first election of county teachers under the new school law. Each division board will elect the teachers for its division and in this manner the trustees can be better informed as to the qualifications of the teachers.

LITTLE CHILD'S FINGER

CUT OFF BY LAWN MOWER.

While playing with a lawn mower, little Miss Monina Denker, the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Denker, Jr., of the Cairo road, cut the middle finger of her left hand off yesterday afternoon. She was playing with the mower, when her hand was caught in the blades. The finger was mangled so that it was necessary to amputate it, but she was resting easy today.

ENFORCEMENT

OF LIQUOR LAWS AND REFORM

Rev. J. P. Peters, of New York, Tells Brewers What They Must Do.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 3.—

One of the features of the day of the brewers' convention was the public meeting at which the principal speaker was the Rev. John P. Peters, chairman of the committee of fourteen which are investigating the liquor question in New York. All speakers at the public meeting advocated the wiping out of the saloons that are not conducted according to law, and a better enforcement of reasonable and fair liquor laws. President Lehman presented Peters in a brief speech.

In discussing the causes of the prohibition movement, Peters said the liquor dealers themselves were partly responsible for the agitation, in that they had not always conducted their business properly. Speaking especially of conditions in New York City, he said the brewers, by their methods of transacting business, had encouraged the responsibility for political corruptions and other evils and flouted in the faces of the people the fact that they did so.

Taking up the question of bad liquor laws, Peters said:

"Any effort on the part of the brewers to better conditions is rendered difficult in New York, and that, I think, is true in general in the country at large, by the hedge-podge of our liquor laws. In general, I am inclined to believe that the best method of dealing with the liquor problem is a system of licensing, and the license should be high license in order to secure better control of the business. But that system can be abused. In New York city you have one of the best examples of the abuse of high license, its use as a means of extorting money from the traffic, without rendering any return in the way of police supervision."

RAILROAD NOTES

Workmen have whitewashed the walls of the machine shops and the place is much lighter and cleaner. Cleanliness is a rule at the shops, and the shop officials are not fearing a visit from Mrs. Crane.

Mr. James Hoffer, foreman of the workmen in the round house, is off duty today and Mr. John Petty was in his position.

Fish are biting and the railroad men are hunting the brooks and lakes with hook and line. On the return of the fishing parties a new crop of fish stories may be expected. Gus Jacobs is chaperoning a party at the Barlow lakes, and according to reports the fishermen are having splendid luck.

Madrid, June 3.—King Alfonso, while playing polo fell from his horse. He suffered a severe sprain of the ankle.

"PANTALON" NOT FOR CHICAGO

May Be Exhibited But Not Worn
There, Say Modistes.

A little later "La Pantalón," which is the newest Paris idea of the divided skirt for street wear, may be shown in some of the State street shops, but even the most sanguine designer of feminine attire have no idea that any woman will wear one. "La Pantalón," recently designed for the June races at Longchamps, meets every oriental standard of decorum and resembles closely the sort of "skirt" affected by the ladies of the harem, but the makers of American fashions do not hesitate to predict that it will never find favor in this country.

"That gown is simply impossible," one of these said. "It is a fresh idea intended to advertise a certain Paris gown-maker and was never intended to be taken seriously. It is perfectly hideous and a woman with the slightest taste would never think of appearing in a gown which would make her a laughing tragedy. I think the idea is a little Mayday. We went back to the fourteenth century for a fresh model last winter, but I don't see any necessity of going the limit and becoming prehistoric."

The head of another gownmaking department of a State street store admitted that one or two of these "creations" might be displayed in Chicago within a short time, but added that no one would wear them. So far the dispatches do not indicate that the Parisian actress who has been advertising the gown indefatigably by wearing it on the boulevards, has met with much success in accumulating followers.—Record-Herald.
